

FROM BYU-IDAHO PRE-ARRIVAL MENTORS

5 Things I wish I knew About BYU-Idaho

#1

GET CONNECTED

When I moved to BYU-Idaho, I did not receive any information about "Get Connected" nor that I had a mentor. For my first 2 days, I was all alone in my apartment. An I-prep saw me randomly on the street on Saturday where I-night was supposed to happen. He helped me to get in touch with my mentors and after that day, I never heard from them again.

#2

I-PLAN

I personally never understood how to use I-plan until recently. If someone would have explained to me more about it, it would have been easier for me to plan college more successfully

#3

CLASSES AND THEIR CODES

I never knew that classes at BYU-Idaho were supposed to be taken or considered according to the year that you were participating. Wherefore, although I did well in my 400 classes; taking them while a freshman was stressful as they are supposed to be senior classes.

#4

BOOKS

I was not well informed on how I could return my purchased books if I find myself with no need of having them anymore

#5

STUDENT GRANT

Understanding how the Scholarship works would have helped me plan and work on my classes more accordingly.

FROM BYU-IDAHO PRE-ARRIVAL MENTORS

5 Things I Love About BYU-Idaho

#1

FHE

I love the FHE programs that BYU-Idaho has for every YSA ward. It helps the students to meet new people and most of the time to have so much fun.

#2

STUDENT EMPLOYMENT

As an international student, It is hard to provide for yourself economically. I love how BYU-Idaho allows their international students to obtain employment experiences really easily to them.

#3

I-NIGHT

I love the I-night. It happens every semester and it is so worth it to try and connect with new people.

#4

PROFESSORS THAT REALLY KNOW YOU

I love how personal most of the professors at BYU-Idaho are. The professors are completely willing to assist with whatsoever they can help with if you reach out to them.

#5

HOUSINGS

I love how clean and well organized the housings are. I also love the opportunity that I have to choose to live close to a temple at the Centre Square Apartments.

ADVICE FROM DANIEL SANTANA